We are all very saddened by the loss of our friend, Russ. He was committed, engaged and always eager to be of help in any way he could. His many hours of work on the WCLV music data base were invaluable to the station. We will always remember the way his eyes twinkled when he was telling a story. How lucky we were to know him! Our deepest sympathies to Cecilia and the entire family. The Staff at WCLV 104.9 ideastream

I had the pleasure of working with Russell in community theater. In fact he was in the first theater show I directed -- "Fools" at Independence Community Theatre. He was a kind and generous man and will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers to Cecelia and his entire family.

Russ made me laugh. I knew him from group and loved hearing him talk and share his story. No matter what, he spun things in a positive way and ALWAYS spoke so lovingly of his wife and children. I'm so sad to hear of his passing, and feel grateful for having had the opportunity to get to know him. We will miss him so much. ❤️

I will always remember Russ's generosity in offering me one of his tickets to the Browns game last fall. The enjoyment that we shared in watching Baker Mayfield make his debut and in the Browns ending their winless streak is something I will always remember. Russ will forever remain a friend in my mind and in my heart. You will be sorely missed by many, my friend

Russ was a great man and a good friend. He was a huge part of our group (Irish Wolfhounds of Northeast Ohio). He was always at our events, even when he was without a dog. When a couple of Irish Wolfhounds with special needs needed a home, Russ and his wife took them right in and what a home he gave them. You will be missed, Russ. Rise and fly free...your earthly race is run.
