Eric and I are saddened to learn of the death of our cousin Ted. One of the pleasures of moving to Ohio was meeting our cousin, our only family member in the area, for the first time. Although Ted had not been well treated by the Baltimore Schreiber family, he never held it against us. We are grateful for the times we spent together. When Ted and Eric's Mom, the former Gloria Schreiber, reunited at our home in Cleveland Heights, they were so delighted to see each other again after so many years. I will share this special memory of Ted. It was the day Ted's spent with us and his first cousin Gene Schreiber. Gene had flown in specially from Baltimore to see Ted and visit with us. We ate lunch at Giovanni's in Beachwood. The two of them were off in their own world, sharing memories of times they spent together while growing up in Baltimore in the 1950's, their faces flushed with happiness and laughter--reminiscing. We will miss him. Our condolences to his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

My condolences to Cindy, Lisa, Howard, and all of the family members of Ted Schreiber That photo says it all. Ted was a warm open hearted man of cheer and joy. He welcomed you with a smile and openness of "so good to see you". I was Cindy's First Grade teacher and when I met Ted and Jane it was "friends forever". We lived through many roads, bumpy or smooth, moreover, we always had a joy of being in one another's company. God's Blessings to the Schreiber Family.....Lois (Pelcarsky) Reilly.....
