Vyacheslav "Steve" Besprozvanny

SEP 1, 1962 - AUG 15, 2020

Vyacheslav (Steve) Besprozvanny passed away on Saturday, August 15, 2020 due to a sudden cardiac arrest at the age of 57.

Vyacheslav was born on September 1, 1962, in Tashkent, Uzbekistan. A beautiful soul that touched the lives of many people in Uzbekistan and the U.S.. He made the journey from Tashkent to Cleveland, OH in hopes of bringing a better life for his family in 1995.

He was terrified of flying but he made two trips in his lifetime that he knew would be worth it. The first was to bring his family to America and the second trip was to go back to Israel to see his first-born daughter after 13 years of not being able to see each other. He was able to spend time with his family in a place that was so special to his heritage.

He worked various jobs to support his family but spent a lot of his time on the road. He would make trips all the way to California listening to his favorite song Hotel California. He was able to enjoy listening to the song one last time before passing away next to his family.

Vyacheslav is survived by his daughters, Sneshana and Yana Besprozvanny, stepson Maksim Shatskiy and sister Lilya Kun. He was predeceased by his father and mother, Yakov and Raisa Besprozvanny.
