Lawrence M. Bogan

APR 6, 1947 - NOV 29, 2020

Larry Bogan, 73, passed away Sunday, Nov. 29, 2020, at the Cleveland Clinic-Hillcrest Hospital in Mayfield Heights.

He was born April 6, 1947, at St. Elizabeth Youngstown Hospital, to Tod and Anastacia Bogan. Larry was the fifth of six children: Tod, Jerry, Patrick, James, Larry and Terry. He was a 1966 graduate of South High School in Youngstown.

Larry was a decorated Army veteran, who proudly served his country in the Vietnam War. Larry spent many of his working years in the food, grocery and beverage industries, where he won numerous awards for his success and executive leadership. In his retirement years, he could not get used to the idle time on his hands, so he continued his late father's painting company, Tod Bogan and Sons Painting and Refurbishing.

Larry was well-known in the greater Cleveland area for his impeccable attention to detail and quality of work. He had a special flair for refurbishing old Victorian homes to their original state.

As a young child growing up on the South Side of Youngstown, Larry developed an affinity for automobiles. He was an avid collector of historical cars, as well having a massive collection of hundreds of model cars, which he crafted and built himself in his workshop. Easy to believe, this was developed from his great respect and love for his brothers, all of whom had a passion for cars as youngsters. Larry had an infectiously gregarious, loving and caring personality. He was a loving husband, dad, grandfather, uncle, brother and loyal friend to many. He looked forward and cherished spending time with his son's family in California.

Larry is survived by his loving and dedicated wife, Beth; stepson, Neil; brothers, Tod, James and Terry; son, Tim; daughter-in-law, Lisa; and two grandchildren, Tim and Gianna.

Just discovered that Larry passed over a year ago. Was reminiscing about the wonderful Christmas Eve/ Hanukkah parties Beth and Larry would invite us to each year. We enjoyed them so much. Know that Larry is remembered with fondness and joy. Maribeth Jergens (companion of Burton Siegel).

It's been a month and a half since Larry passed away and I still can't bring myself to the realization that he has passed. Out of my five brothers, Larry was closest to me. My parents separated when I was quite young, can't remember my age, maybe 7-8. Larry was always there for me. He had the regrettable task of looking after his baby brother, who from what I have been told was quite a brat. I can't remember anytime Larry wasn't there for me during this trying time. I guess his loss hit me hardest around the Holidays. We didn't communicate much throughout the year, but always a call on Christmas, New Years and birthdays. Every time we would talk, whether in good times or bad, it always included some joking banter that lightened up any situation. Sitting here I guess I am going to miss that the most, but can take comfort in the memories of our times together. Even now I still think wonder how Larry's doing. It's taken me some time to even write a card or communicate, guess it something I don't want to accept.
