Stanley Wernick

OCT 11, 1931 - AUG 2, 2022

Stanley Wernick, age 90, was born on October 11, 1931 and peacefully passed away surrounded by his family, grandchildren and caregivers on August 2, 2022.

Stanley is the loving son of Samuel (z'l, of blessed memory) and Lilian (z'l); husband of 63 years to Ethel Stearns (z'l); a devoted father to Stacie, Wayne and Warren (Gail Schroeder); loving grandfather of Daniel and Claire; dear brother of Marvin (z'l) and Sheldon; uncle of Sam, Lynn, Marci and Fred; devoted cousin of many.

Stanley was born in Cleveland, Ohio and attended John Adams high school, while working at the family store. Stanley is a United States Army veteran and returned to Cleveland following his military service to begin a sales career with Stearns Automotive and Deacon's Chrysler. Stanley was named a Chrysler salesman of the year in 1959. Stanley loved to collect antiques, watches, and jewelry. He was active in the Mason's, Forest City Lodge and was honored as the Mason of the Year in 1988.

Stanley's grandchildren, Daniel and Claire were the light of Stanley's life, and his courage, strength and compassion will forever be with them.

Funeral Services will be held graveside at Mt. Olive Cemetery on Friday, August 5 at 2 PM at 27855 Aurora Road, Solon. The family will receive friends from 4-6:30 PM at Beechmont Country Club at 29600 Chagrin Blvd., Beachwood.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Stanley's memory are suggested to the American Heart Association at www.heart.org

Barbara Goldstock Blatt posted:

Dearest family of Stanley, Moe and I are very sorry to hear of Stan's passing. Please accept our sincere condolences. We loved having both your mom and dad as neighbors, couldn't ask for finer people, I shared many gardening experiences with dad. I do go back many years with Stan, I remember swimming on Traymore, while he and Burt worked for the same guy. He will be greatly missed. Fondly, Barbara and Moe Blat
