“ I remember the first time I met Eric, I was so nervous. We drove to Ohio, Evan and I, and when we arrived Eric greeted me with a smile. We had a fun time during that trip to Ohio. I remember when Evan and I got married, Eric drove from Ohio to see us. He kissed me and said how happy he was that I was officially his daughter in law now. I had the flu, and Eric stayed at the house making sure I was okay. He got us dinner and we had champagne. When I was pregnant and would come to visit, he would tuck me in with a blanket so I could rest. I am happy I was blessed to have him in my life and my children's lives. He was truly one of the kindest most selfless people I have ever met. Eric, I miss you and love you.

“ I have a lot of great memories with Eric.
We were always together. It was great 16 years. We traveled together to Arizona, California, New York, Mexico, Brazil, went on some cruises.
I was spoiled a lot by Eric. By the time I was coming home from work house was clean, laundry is done, dinner almost ready.
Everything Eric bought was for for the house. He made sure we have everything and sometimes more than that. Sometimes I complained, but I knew he was doing the right things.
We looked at each other without saying anything and we didn't have to- we understand without words.
If I tell that car doesn't sound right- he called mechanic to fix it.
Eric was ready to give everything to his children and grandchildren.
If kids called saying we need your help or they don't feel good we would drive to Pittsburgh to support them.
Eric helped me to raise my children Lena and Steven, and was very proud of what they have accomplished.

I miss you terribly.
Love you very much.

“ Raichka, I am so very sorry for your terrible loss! I can't even imagine! No words will help you grieve at this time. You have had a difficult year, with the recent loss of your wonderful mom as well. Remember the good times! May Eric rest in peace!
Lots of love from Ana and me, and our sincerest condolences to you and the family!

“ I have so many memories with my dad don't know where 2 start all our trips we had 2 New York or all our rides when I would come visit u for summer listening to Russian music not knowing what there saying just looking over at u smiling. Or when I would kiss u goodbye on forehead or even ur cheek and u would say that ant how u kiss ur father. My dad never took bs from anyone I remember a guy gave u a finger in traffic trying to look cool for his gf u followed him to a restraunt then pulled out a little bat I got u from a pirate game guy was so scared he said sorry 2 me. All the good times we had when my dad delivered pizzas remember we were parked on a hill u ran to make a delivery I was in car u left it on I switched gears on accident was slowing bout to go over a hillside u ran jumped in car just in time. All the nights we had just me u at gate mills towers all the nights swimming. I mis my dad asking me to rub his back always said no one gave him massages like me with love or even him rubbing my back no matter how he felt he always told me he loved giving me a back rub. I remember one trip 2 New York we played Russian pool he let me win i loved it so much he got a pool table all the long nights playing pool him letting me win smiling. No matter what the situation was my dad was there my dad was everything to me my Freind my role model he taught me a lot and never gave up on me.
Love u dad

“ I met Eric when I was 16 he didn't speak to much English but we manage to communicate he was my first love and we had 3 beautiful children and 8 beautiful beautiful grandchildren. I see a part of him in all our children. He was a hard worker giving us the best of everything. You will always have a place in my heart wish I could of told you that “ I have so many memories of my father one of the best weeks of my life was when he took me to Los Angeles in the summer of 93. We didn't take many trips together but this one was memorable we did everything. We sat in LA traffic had long conversations learned a lot about him and life itself. My dad was a fun guy. He always wanted to be more of a friend sometimes it was good and bad. Through everything we been through good and bad I know he still loved me and I never stopped loving him.

You will be missed by everyone goodbye

Love Boris
